Chapter 14 By Elaine Taylor

July 14, 2015

The Fear (respect, reverence) of the Lord is a Fountain of Life. Below are some ways to “drink” from that fountain:

- Delight the Lord in all your ways. We need to desire to please God and not men, even when others may think us foolish.
- Be at peace and show peace to others. When we have the peace of God in our hearts, it’s so much easier to share that with those around us.
- Be content in the Lord. We need to count our blessings every day, instead of counting what someone else has.
- Be patient with others. They may be young in the Lord and still growing. Someday, you, yourself, may need someone to show patience with you.
- Let Him be your refuge. Learn to hide under the wings of God the Father.
- Control your tongue. THINK BEFORE YOU SPEAK OR ACT.
- Be truthful, but wise with words. You don’t have to “wound” or “kill” people with your words to spread the Gospel.
- Be kind in word and deed. Do something good every day and pray that kindness gets passed on.
- Be profitable in your work and wise with your profits. Remember, God blesses you to bless others. Tithing does bring God’s rewards.
- Be careful in whom you choose to share your confidences, hopes and dreams. The foolish wisdom of this world will pass away, but the knowledge God can impart to you through others is immeasurable.
